

Disability Resource Center Memorandum

“The Disability Resource Center is seeking a Note-taker for this class. The requirements to be a Note-taker are that you must take thorough notes.

Students who are hired as Note-takers by the DRC are paid between $9.00 and $9.50 per hour. These notes serve as an important accommodation for students who have disabilities, which affect their ability to take notes during lecture. If you are interested in being a Note-taker, please apply at <http://www.northeastern.edu/drc/forms/index.html>.

Note-taker position is open to all Northeastern students of all status.”
